Have you planned to make sure your life decisions are carried out by those you trust ?

- Many people haven't. Sometimes the difficulty is knowing where to begin.
- GayWill.com provides you the information, explanations, and documents you need to begin estate and other life-issues planning.

Why use GayWill.com ?

- GayWill.com is an affordable way to create legal, state-specific documents in the privacy of your home. Your information is stored on a private and secure server, instantly accessible if you move or if your life situation changes. Documents are available to you and only you.

What's the process ?

- As you use GayWill.com — the entire process takes 15-30 minutes — to personalize your documents, you will answer questions concerning yourself and your desires for your customized plan. All information you provide will be on a secure and encrypted basis and will be used solely to prepare your estate planning documents.

Who should consider estate planning ?

- Everyone should lay a foundation of basic planning.
- Gays and lesbians have a greater need than traditional spousal couples to specifically plan for the passage of decision-making and property to partners not recognized by state and federal law.

What happens if you do not plan?

- In the absence of a legal will, your state of residence will direct the disposition of your assets if something happens to you. In the case of health care decisions, your physicians will decide, perhaps with input from your immediate family.

What does GayWill.com cost ?

- GayWill.com documents for both you and your partner are preped for $149. If you choose to prepare only your documents, the fee is $99. Changes can be made FREE for the first 30 days, and thereafter $69 for yourself or $99 for both you and your partner.
